THE MISSION OF NEW JERUSALEM LUTHERAN CHURCH:

We are a group of people who gather together in friendship and love to worship God, to spread God's Word, and to care for God's people.

*“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.”
This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it:
“You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” Matthew 22:37b-39*

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

How would you define Christian stewardship? The booklet, Stewards of God's Love describes it as a way of life that calls us to integrate our faith and the way we live, as “everything we do after we say ‘I believe.’” It is primarily about love: love from God which we are called to share with the rest of creation. Members of our Stewardship Committee and Council are currently studying this booklet. Many of the ideas presented below come from this resource.

The booklet begins with the image of what we think about when we make the sign of the cross: down, in, and out. When we make this sign, first traced on our foreheads at baptism, we start from our foreheads, move down toward our waists, back toward our hearts, out to each shoulder, and return to our hearts. This reminds us of how God has come down to us, how we bring in what God has abundantly given us, and how we then look out to understand what our neighbors need.

God has come down to us in many ways. Beginning with creation God has provided us with a beautiful place to live, and called us humans to be stewards of its abundance. (A steward is “someone who cares for someone else’s property”) We are often particularly aware of these gifts during the summer. God’s love also comes down to us through Jesus, whom God sent to bring healing to our brokenness and restore us to the right relationship with God and one another. God continues to come down to us in love through God’s Spirit, to claim us as God’s children and to guide and empower us to carry God’s love to all around.

God has blessed us with abundance, more than we can ever imagine: not just things, but our very selves and our time and our talents. “When we realize that everything belongs to God and not to us, we can’t help but offer it back to God to be given away in thanksgiving for God’s generosity to us.” What we bring in to God may not seem like much, but when we put our gifts into God’s hands, they can become so much more. Remember the boy who offered his lunch of a few loaves and fish to Jesus and Jesus used them to feed 5,000?

The third movement is outward: looking around to see how God is calling us to use all the resources that God has given into our care to love God and our neighbors. “Stewardship transforms God’s commandment to ‘love our neighbors as ourselves’ . . . into a way of life.”

This month we celebrate Pentecost and remember how the Holy Spirit came down upon the disciples, setting their hearts on fire, eager to share the message of God’s love through Jesus to all around. The Spirit used their words and deeds to draw others into God’s love, birthing the community we know as the church. Members of that church continue to look outward to learn how to share the abundance we have received. We also celebrate the festival of the Holy Trinity, when we consider how God acts in unity as community: Father, Son and Spirit, whom we also know as Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier. We then continue to express our thankfulness and joy through celebrations of creation, thinking particularly of the gifts of Forest and Wilderness.

So now, as we move into summer, may you enjoy and become ever more aware of the abundance of what our loving God has given us and be renewed in your love for God, self and neighbor.

FAITH FIVE

During worship on May 14 we talked about building networks that support us in our lives. Faith 5 is one way to help to do this.

What is Faith Five? It's a way to connect with family or friends in order to build relationships with God and with one another. Each day, or as often as possible, connect with your family or a family you create and;

- 1) SHARE highs and lows,
- 2) READ a Bible verse or story or hymn,
- 3) TALK about how what you read might relate to your highs and lows,
- 4) PRAY for one another's highs and lows, and
- 5) BLESS one another (e.g. "God loves you and so do I.")

For more information visit www.faith5.org.

For such a time as this PRAY. FAST. ACT.

Our ELCA bishop, Elizabeth Eaton and the presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church, The Most Reverend Michael Curry, have issued a joint invitation to a season of prayer, fasting and advocacy. Out of concern for the proposed deep cuts to programs that are vital to hungry people struggling with poverty, they summon our churches to practices of spiritual devotion that undergird a discipline of public witness on behalf of the neighbor.

More people face famine today than at any time in modern history. More than 20 million are at the brink of starvation and millions more suffer shortages of water and food.

While the initial call was in anticipation of the May 21st Global Day of Prayer to End Famine, our bishops are also calling us to pray, fast and advocate on the 21st of every month throughout the 115th Congress, and to join others in highlighting for members of Congress the importance of foreign assistance and humanitarian relief.

We fast to fortify our advocacy in solidarity with families who are struggling with hunger. We fast to be in solidarity with neighbors who suffer famine, who have been displaced, and who are vulnerable to conflict and climate change. We fast with immigrants who are trying to make a better future for their families and now face the risk of deportation. We fast in solidarity with families on SNAP, who often run out of food the last week of the month. (A call to prayer from Bread for the World.)

Fasting is a spiritual discipline in which we humble ourselves and deprive ourselves of something for a predetermined period of time. It does not have to be refraining from food. It can be refraining from something else like the use of social media, not watching TV, etc.

Fasting is a choice for us, not an attempt to imitate the conditions of hunger for others. The purpose of the fast is for us to draw closer to God and allow God to use us for God's purpose. While refraining from something, consider adding something to the day such as a time of meditation, a walk in nature or a journaling exercise.

The story of Esther provides encouragement for our fasting, prayer and advocacy. Esther, a Jew, was the wife of the Persian king. When plans were made to slaughter all the Jews in the empire, Esther's cousin Mordechai pleaded with her to go to the king and use her voice to advocate for them, even though this might place her life in danger. He urged her not to remain silent, as she may have been sent "for such a time as this." Esther asked people to fast and pray with her for three days to fortify her advocacy before the king, resulting in saving the lives of her people.

For more about our bishop's call to prayer, fasting and advocacy go to www.elca.org/pray.fast.act. To learn about Lutheran Advocacy go to www.elca.org/Our-Work/Publicly-Engaged-Church/Advocacy.

Did You Know?

BEE

The bee symbolizes various traits across cultures and faiths, including community, industry and resurrection. Its sting may represent judgment, while its honey calls to mind the sweetness of divine riches.

Multiple times in the Old Testament, the Promised Land is described as "flowing with milk and honey" (e.g., Exodus 3:8), and the Psalms declare God's words "sweeter than honey" (19:10; 119:103).

Thank you so much for your thoughtfulness. The cookies were very tasty and disappeared quickly. Thank you for thinking of us. – George and Jeannette DeLong

Congregation and Pastor Ruth, thank you for an enjoyable evening of fellowship and food at Ozgood's. The planter is beautiful and appreciated. The dependability and cooperative attitude of our bell choir enabled us to ring musically and seasonally appropriate music. I was always pleased and proud of our ringers. God bless all of you. – Helen Schellenberger

Bible Quiz

The “Trinitarian formula” occurs only once in the Bible. In which New Testament book do we read “in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,” and who said these words?

- A. Romans; Paul
- B. 1 Peter; Simon Peter
- C. The Acts of the Apostles; Luke
- D. Matthew; Jesus

Answer: D (See Matthew 28:19.)

THOUGHTS FOR FATHER'S DAY

An unknown father who began to consider the example he should set for his children penned the following poem:

A careful man I ought to be;
A little fellow follows me;
I do not dare to go astray
For fear he'll go the self-same way.

I cannot once escape his eyes;
Whate'er he sees me do, he tries –
Like me, he says, he's going to be,
The little chap who follows me.

He thinks that I am good and fine,
Believes in every word of mine:
The base in me he must not see,
The little chap who follows me.

I must remember as I go,
Through summer's sun and winter's snow,
I'm building for the years to be,
For a little fellow follows me.
